WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY, ATEST and most Complete edition. Price reduced. In two large octave volumes, in full leather binding, for twelve dollars; being the most full and comprehensive edition issued, and containing much more matter than the original edition, which was issued (unbound) for twenty-five dollars. For sale for the publishers by F. TAYLOR.

From Chancellar Kent's Eulogy on the author.

"The American Dictionary of the English Language, is a work of profound investigation, and does infinite honor to the philological learning and general literature of this country. Happy the man who can thus honorably identify his name with the existence of our vernacular tongue. There is no other way in which nortal man could more effectually secure immortality beneath the skies. Obelisks, arches, and triumphal monuments seem to be as transient as the bubble of military reputation. No work of art can pubble of military reputation. No work of art can withstand the incessant strokes of time. The unriwithstand the increasant strokes of time. The unri-valled Parthenon, glowing in polished marble, and which, for more than two thousand years continued from the summit of the citadel of Athena to cast its broad splendors across the plains below, and along the coasts and headlands of Attica, is now crumbthe coasts and headlands of Attica, is now crumbling to ruins, after being despoted of its most exquisite materials by savage war and heartless man.—
Even the Pyramids of Egypt, whose origin is hidded in the deepest recesses of antiquity, and which have always stood in awe-inspiring solitude and grandeur, are now annoyed by the depredations of curiosity, and greatly corroded by the action of the elements, and grandually sinking under the encroaching sands of the desert. This dictionary; and the language which it embodies will also perish; but it will not be with the gorgeous palaces. It will go with the solemn temples and the great globe itself."

The Publishers of the foregoing work respectfully announce that they have made arrangements with Mr. F. Taylor, Bookseller, of Washington city, to furnish the American Dictionary, in two large volumes, at the very reduced price of twelve dollars.

It is to be understood that for this price the best paper and type, and the best binding, will be sup-plied—the best copies, that is to say, in all respects. The very valuable supplement, which is contained in no other edition than the present one, should not be passed unnoticed; it contains four thousand words, of given in any other dictionary; was only completed by Dr. Webster in 1843, immediately before the sickness which terminated his valuable life, and has been published and copy-righted, since his death, by

The work is now therefore in a finished and com-The work is now therefore in a finished and complete state, it is not to be supposed that any thing more can or will be added to it; the present edition defining and illustrating twenty thousand more words than the edition which, when it first issued from the hands of Dr. Websier, was acknowledged by the English philologists to be the best dictionary in the world.

"THE CONSTITUTION."

THE undersigned having purchased the materials of The Spectator, will issue, on or before the 10th inst. the first number of a new paper to be called "The Constitution." It will be devoted to the steady advocacy of that system of measures which will preserve unimpaired the sacred instrument from which we berrow the name; and as constantly oppose whatever is not sanctioned by it. We shall unceasingly oppose a National Bank—a Pretêtite Tariff—internal Improvement by the General Government—a Distribution of the Proceeds of the sales of the Public Lands—Assumption of the State Debts—an abrogation of the Executive Voto, as unconstitutional and inexpedient.

We hope to make the paper worthy of the confidence and support of the Democratic party. It shall be the faithful expositor of their principles, and the ever ready medium to convey their sentiments and wishes to the public. The Democratic cause, is the cause of truth and justice. It courts the light, It shuns no investigation. And we are determined to see whether a paper, conducted with a devotion to the principles, rather than to the men, of our party—to further the great cause of human progress, rather than the mere advancement of particular individuals, will not commend itself to the confidence and favor of the people.

As soon as the all engrossing topics of the elections will not commend itself to the confidence and involved the people.

As soon as the all engrossing topics of the elections are over, we shall devote a lineral portion of our columns to subjects of general literature and science; endeavoring to present such matter as will amuse, instruct, and edify.

The proceedings of Congress will receive particular attention, and a full and comprehensive summary will be given, including the yeas and nays upon all important nuestions.

MISS HEANEY'S ACADEMY,

I street, opposite President's Square Washington.

M ISS HEANEY, of Boston, Massachusetts, prin-cipal instructress, respectfully gives notice to parents and guardians of her resuming the education of Young Ladies in this city in the former family residence of Col. Bomford, according to her early purposes of educating boarding pupils as a family, with a convenient number of day scholars. Her own purposes in the convenient number of day scholars.

with a convenient number of day scholars. Her own personal instruction and care being given to each of her pupils individually in whatever pursuits of learning or accomplishments they may engage. Assistant instructresses will be resident in her family, and exclusively engaged to aid her responsibly as professors in this charge. One of the most skilful in Vocal and Instrumental Music will always be so engaged; other professors will attend to give lessons, as may be required, but only with her own attention to her pupils as principal. The many years occupancy of this house by Col. Bomford's family evinces healthiness of the situation well; and its spaciousness, pleasont
